TUESDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 18.

A PRAYER FOR PARDON. - As the President was passing to the stairs of Willard's Hotel, efter speaking, during his recent visit to Lousville, thirty-nine little maidens scattered flowers under his feet as he passed, and when he arrived at the end of their line, having stopped occasionally to kiss one of their sweet, innocent faces, one of them handed him the following becatiful petition praying for the release from prison of Mr. Davis, which the President very kindly received, promising to read it at his first leisure moment and give it his consideration: To His Excellency Andrew Johnson, President of the United States of America: Honored Sir-The undersigned, little girls of the city of Louisville, and of the State of Kenneky, taught by our mothers to venerate you as the nation's head and the people's friend, moved by sympathy for one who once stood your peer in the councils of the nation, do most respectfully present this prayer in his behalf, and in behalf of an anguished mother and griefstricken little ones-

That you release from prison, on parole or otherwise, as may seem best to you, Jefferson Davis, late President of the "so-called Contederate States of America." If our Chief Magistrate shall find it consistent with his sense of duty to the nation to grant our prayer, millions of little ones shall rise up to call him blessed. LOUISVILLE, September 11, 1866.

In Goodson, the other day, as we learn from the Lynchburg News, Governor Peirpoint nade a speech "in which he favored the audience with his views of the defects of the railroad system in Virginia, and illustrated by examples the beneficial result which would their shall be nothing to mar the pleasure of my navitably follow a reform in some particulars, especially in the high rates charged for freights and travel and particularly in the discrimination made against local travel and tonnage.-The Governor, before concluding his address, openly avowed his approval of the proposed scheme for consolidating the management of the great lines of improvement through the State, and predicted the benefits which would result therefrom.

JOHN P. BALLARD,
THOMAS E. BALLARD,
Proprietors. The undersigned take pleasure in announcing to the travelling public (as well as to city boarders) that they have returned to their old business again, and from this day they are ready to cater to the taste and comfort of all who may avor them with their patronage.

They have purchased all the furniture in the establishment, all of which is of the very best quality, and selected with gre t care from the best furnishing houses in New York, within the last twelve months, and much of which has never been unpacked; indeed, the hotel is furnished in the most superb style.

The BALLARD HOUSE is new, and contains one hundred and twenty pleasant and well ventilated lodging rooms, all of which have grates. The partors and public rooms are large and convenient; the building is commanding, and acknowled to be one of the best ever constructed in the Southern States; and all together offer advantages rarely met with in a public

Our table shall always be generously supplied with the best the market affords, and with the delicacies of the season and the choicest of wine. The BAR-ROOM is an elegant one, and shall be furnished with the best of liquors, etc., etc. We pledge our undivided attention to the business, and expect from our old friends, ladies and gentlemen of Virginia, and the whole country, their support and hope to receive a liberal share of the public patronage.

> BLADES EUPHONIAL LUBRICATORS! THE PEOPLE'S

and all Pulmonary Diseases. The LUBRICATOR is a medicinal prepara tion, in the form of a lozenge, which of all modes is the most pleasant and convenient. They contain no deleterious ingredient, and are warranted to be always safe, even for the weakest and most sensitive stomach. In croup they give immediate relief. For coughs and colos they are invaluable.

For Catarrh, Asthma and Bronchitis they have no equal in the market, (vide certificates accompanying each box.) Diptheria, that dreaded and desolating disease, they control wonderfully and almost immediately.

No public speaker, singer or teacher should be without them, as they remove hoarseness and strengthen and clear the voice. Always use them in time, and if the symptoms are severe use very freely. J. H. BLADES & CO., Proprietors, JANNEY & CO., Wholesale Agents, 145, King street, above St. Asaph, ALEXANDRIA, VA.

NORMAN F. MOORE, will, on MONDAY, October 1, open a NIGHT SCHOOL, for the instruction of young men in the Languages, Arithmetic, Writing and Bookkeeping. For terms, etc., application can be made at the school-room, No. 60, Fairfax st.
N. B.—The Day School will be continued.

MRS. CASTLEMAN IS PREPARED TO re-open her school on Monday, September 17th, at No. 38, south Pitt street, second door from St. Paul's Church. Her school-room is large and airy, and situated in a central and pleasant location.

While drawing no invidious comparison with the excellent schools already established in Al-exandria, she feels assured that she can offer advantages equal to any in the place.

She appeals especially to the old Alexandrians, as having herself been a former resident, and the daughter of a native Alexandrian and more especially to the Episcopalians of Alexandria as being the daughter and widow of Episcopal clergymen, who both fell, with the harness on, in the service of the Church. Terms, per scholastic year: $24, $32, $40 and $50, according to advancement-payable quarterly in advance.

To meet a felt want in the education of girls, there will be a sewing class, two after-noons of each week, for which an additional charge of $1 50 per month will be made. Miss HARRIET L. POWELL, an experienced and successful teacher, will assist in the
